Social skills and competences

Organisational skills and competences I am able to work in a team and have relationships with people and colleagues. Both work and study experiences (especially when carried out abroad) allowed me to get in touch with people, activities and realities different from each other to what I have always adapted easily. I consider myself a very openminded person, flexible and reliable, unselfish and always ready to help colleagues. On work, precise and punctual: team spirit, capacity to collaborate in an interdisciplinary setting and good ability to adapt to multicultural environments.
